Getting to Know Jack Wied

Sales Executive | Madison Office

Tell us a little about you.

I am from Green Bay, Wisconsin although I've lived in Madison for roughly 8 years or so since I went to school here at Edgewood College. My wife, Gabby and I were married last year and have bought a home on the west side of Madison near the hospitals as she is a nurse at the VA.

I grew up playing hockey year-round and was always in and out of school to travel for games/tournaments etc. My family is originally from Nebraska, as my dad was born there when my grandpa was playing football for the Huskers in the early 70s. Since I can remember I've been surrounded by entrepreneurs, competition, and determination through the many role models I've been fortunate enough to have.

My primary goal with Cottingham & Butler is to make a positive influence on Green Bay/Fox Valley marketplace and help small businesses flourish and grow our community. Gabby and I plan to move to Green Bay over the next couple of years.

What's one hobby you have outside of work?

In the winter I love to be in the weight room, and in the summer, I love to be on the golf course.

If you could travel anywhere in the world, where would you go and why?

I'd go to Ireland to play golf.

What's your go-to karaoke song?

Free Fallin' - Tom Petty

If you could have dinner with any 3 people, dead or alive, who would they be and why?

- 1 Vince Lombardi
Greatest coach of all time, responsible for building the Green Bay Packers and the city of Green Bay into what they are today.
- 2 Emperor Marcus Aurelius
Author of "Meditations", his philosophical journal that was hundreds of years ahead of its time. I read every morning.
- 3 President Theodore Roosevelt
My favorite quote: "Man in the Arena" was a speech that I had hung up in my room growing up.
